

Christoph Walter MLI Diplom Ingenieur Landscape
Architecture 1997 Technical University Munich.

A senior landscape architect, Christoph is head of both the landscape design and sustainable communities department in MosArt, a leading environmental practice based in Wicklow Town. He joined the practice in 2005 and has over 13 years consultancy experience in international landscape architecture, public realm and recently community projects.

Christoph is currently project managing the Ballynagran Energy Plus+ Community Scheme and is involved in all aspects of the project. See www.ballynagran.com for further details.