

Gearóid Fitzgibbon is a community development worker with North Tipperary LEADER Partnership and voluntary chairperson of Changing Ireland, the national magazine of community development in Ireland. Gearóid has been involved in supporting the development of number of community initiatives in North Tipperary with a focus on the green economy: these include Drombane/Upperchurch Energy Team; Borrisokane Community Forum. Gearóid has also assisted in the development of Tipperary Green Business Network. Gearóid has a background as a community volunteer and holds a masters from UCC in Third Sector Management. In 2009 he spent a period as a human rights accompanier in the Occupied Palestinian Territories (Hebron), where he witnessed cooperation between Israeli and Palestinian engineers in electrification of rural communities in the South Hebron Hills.