

Tina Opalic

Tina Opalic has graduated in Economics and Business and is currently employed at North-West Croatia Regional Energy Agency (REGEA) as a Project Leader. Her work in Agency is related to management of various international and national projects while her field of expertise is socio-economics. She is currently engaged in IEA project Task 29 focused on Socio-Economic Drivers in Implementing Bioenergy Projects and CONCERTO SERVE project within the FP6. For SERVE project Tina prepared a case study assessing the replication possibilities of the ESCO model established as well as social case studies portraying the impact of SERVE project on the society.